Committee Reports

- o Executive Committee made the agenda for the day
- o Membership Committee: Maria discussed the need for co-chairs. She reviewed when the meetings happen (third Friday, every even month via phone from 10 am to 11 am). Joann brought forward the revised commitment letter and asked that current members sign the form to commit to participate in the year to come. Joann also brought several applications for new guests who are interested in joining the taskforce.
- o Program Review & Quality Enhancement (PRQE) Committee: Paul & Chrissy – Paul motioned to approve Chrissy as Co-chair of the PRQE, Maria seconded, motion passed. Chrissy is the new co-chair. Paul recapped the PRQE meeting. He talked about the First Episode Psychosis presentation that they received today as well as plans for next year. They discussed the GAPS study that we participated in throughout this year, We will invite Tim Connor and Abra to discuss the information they found.
- o Training and Education (TE) Committee: Tim – Maria moved to vote Tim as co-chair, Chrissy seconded. Motion passed unanimously. Tim recapped the work of the CPS Best Practice document.

Certified Peer Specialist Advisory Committee (CPSAC): Corbi – Reported that the formation of the subcommittees – the Professional Development (lead by Mary Neubauer and Mary Kay Wagner), Governance – (lead by Meagan Sulikowski and Christine Richardson), and Employment (lead by Paul Anderson and Michelle Uetz).

Joann brought forward the MSHIP and ROSI Surveys and distributed the information to the group. Chris Keenan wants to consider using the MSHIP versus the ROSI but wants peer input before changing. Joann will send the documents electronically to all for to review. She will set up a time for a phone call with Chris for anyone who wants to participate in providing feedback on the surveys.

Discussion: Integrating Substance Use into RITF Focus. Paul lead a discussion about how the RITF can be better about integrating SU focus into RITF work.

Break

Mindfulness meditation lead by Lynn McLaughlin

Continued discussion: Integrating Substance Use into RITF Focus. What can the RITF do to be more inclusive of substance use.

What can we do?

- Have presentations on many pathways (AA/NA, SMART Recovery, MAT, etc)
- Do outreach to community to find out from folks struggling with SU issues need from us
- Bring more SU focused people to the taskforce
- We all agree that trauma is the basis of MH and SU struggles, focus on the trauma and trauma and resiliency informed systems of care
- Joan talked about fidelity measures and questionnaires, they are not always aligned. The scales are helpful in setting the goals and moving toward them, but do they encompass both SU and MH?
- Joann, Scott, Theresa and Donna could bring Scott Caldwell in or information in about implementation science and how to help systems
- Are programs hiring and utilizing CPS and Recovery Coaches to fidelity?

Recap action items – identify and list who is doing what

- Joann will send info about peer recovery conference
- Tim will send info about how to participate the planning committee
- Maria will send info about NAMI conference and how to submit for a workshop
- Joann will send MSHIP and ROSI tools and information to all and find out which members want to review.
- Joann will reach out to Tim Connor and Abra Vigna to find out the status of the GAPS Study and ask them to present in January if the study is finished
